THE SPY IMPACT

The International Spy Museum (SPY) is the world’s only independent nonprofit museum dedicated to exploring the history and craft of espionage and intelligence. We rely on the generosity of donors and sponsors to support our work:

- Each year we provide thousands of students and adult learners of all ages with innovative, award-winning opportunities to explore, learn, and think differently about the world around them.
- Our workshops and field trips for underserved youth and programs for hospitalized children, incarcerated youth, the neurodivergent community, individuals with memory care needs and more aim to reach all in our community who would otherwise not be able to experience SPY’s unique world of discovery.
- We tell remarkable true stories of resilience and ingenuity through the world’s largest collection of espionage artifacts on public view.
- During the pandemic, SPY reached more than 5 million households in all 50 states and 60 countries with unique programming and online content.

"I CHOSE THE SPY MUSEUM AS THE HOME OF THIS AWARD BECAUSE I KNOW OF NO OTHER PLACE THAT DOES MORE TO EDUCATE AND ENLIGHTEN YOUNG PEOPLE AND LEARNERS OF ALL AGES ABOUT THE UNIQUE AND ESSENTIAL WORK OF ESPIONAGE AND INTELLIGENCE."
