

STARS, STRIPES, AND SPIES: TEACHING THE SECRET HISTORY OF AMERICA

A Professional Development Workshop presented by the International Spy Museum

SCHEDULE OVERVIEW:

Please note that all times/content are subject to change.

Sunday, June 28, 2026 (4:30 pm – 8:00 pm)

- Welcome and Classified Activity
- Dinner and Debrief

Monday, June 29, 2026 (8:30 am – 4:00 pm)

- Overview of K-12 Education at SPY
- Talk with SPY's Historian: Spying in America – Themes and Trends
- Tour of Spy Museum exhibits
- Individual work time

Tuesday, June 30, 2026 (8:30 am – 4:00 pm)

- Spying in American History discussion and activities:
 - American Revolution
 - Civil War
 - World War I
- Tour of special exhibit
- Tour of Spy Museum "Vault" (collections storage)
- Individual work time

Wednesday, July 1, 2026 (8:30 am – 4:00 pm)

- Spying in American History discussion and activities:
 - World War II
 - Cold War
 - Cold War to Present
- Talk with former intelligence officer
- Individual work time

Thursday, July 2, 2026 (8:30 am – 1:00 pm)

- Individual work time
- Teacher Presentations
- Sharing SPY resources
- Farewell lunch