SPYING THAT SHAPED HISTORY

Explore stories that illustrate the impact of intelligence on history, including successes and failures, new tech tools, and the tension in balancing secrecy and openness.

GEORGE WASHINGTON LETTER, 1777

BERLIN WALL 1961-1989

AN UNCERTAIN WORLD

Spy agencies help protect their countries from threats—real, perceived, or contrived. Find out how nations have struggled to assess who poses a threat and how they can be stopped.

DEBRIEFING CENTER

Receive your UNDERCOVER MISSION performance debrief that summarizes your top spy skills.

UNDERCOVER MISSION

Go undercover and test your spy skills on a mission as you travel the Museum's permanent exhibitions. This RFID-enabled experience tracks your performance on interactives and provides you with a debrief upon conclusion. Access will also be granted to a website where you can "meet" spies like you and access your full debrief and photos.

UNDERCOVER MISSION IS INCLUDED WITH MUSEUM ADMISSION.
