The mission of the Museum is to educate the public about espionage and intelligence in an engaging way and to provide a context that fosters understanding of their important role in, and impact on, current and historic events.

The Honorable William H. Webster Distinguished Service Award Dinner honors the men and women who have served in the field of National Security with integrity and distinction.

The International Spy Museum is a non-profit organization that brings the world of intelligence to life, illuminating how it has changed the course of history and continues to play a significant role in our lives today. It is the first public museum in the United States solely dedicated to intelligence and the only one in the world to provide a global perspective on this all-but-invisible profession. It features the largest collection of international spy-related artifacts ever placed on public display. The Museum is visited by over 700,000 people annually.

BENEFITS AND OPPORTUNITIES

As a sponsor, your organization will:

- » Help provide the necessary funds to build on the Spy Museum's community outreach programs including:
 - Title I Schools, a program that provides schools with large concentrations of low-income students with supplemental funds to assist in meeting student's educational goals.
 - Discounted student workshops
 - Access to Spy, which offers exclusive programs with enhanced accessibility for various audiences, including those with disabilities. The Access to Spy series include Opening Our Doors to the Autism Community and Opening Our Doors to the Deaf and ASL Community.
 - Discounted admission for active duty military, fire, and law enforcement personnel, to name a few.

Elevate your company's visibility and brand awareness through our various recognition benefits outlined in this packet.

“ TOGETHER, ALL OF US CAN AND MUST DO THE WORK THE AMERICAN PEOPLE EXPECT OF US AND...IN THE WAY THE CONSTITUTION DEMANDS US.”

- JUDGE WEBSTER, SWEARING IN AT THE FBI, 1980
